

Share Your IDD Direct Support Professional(DSP) Story Make Your Voice Heard Before State Lawmakers

The Kansas Council on Developmental Disabilities (KCDD) is working to eliminate the Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD) waitlist and improve the workforce crisis in Kansas.

As part of our advocacy efforts, we need to hear your story!

Please complete this form and email to Kathy Keck (kathy@kcdd.org) at KCDD as soon as possible.*

Full Name:

City:

Email:

Zip Code:

Cell Phone:

Please complete the following questions. You can include brief answers.

1. Tell KCDD how/why you became a Direct Support Professional (DSP) including how long you have been a DSP. If you are no longer a DSP, please explain why not?
2. What is the most rewarding part of being a DSP?
3. What are the biggest struggles you have as a DSP?
4. What would attract others to be a DSP in Kansas and stay in the field?

By completing this form, I authorize KCDD to use my testimonial, including, name and pictures provided, for KCDD advocacy purposes In addition I opt in for my name and email to be added to KCDD's listserv*